

2
Floor

1
Floor

0
Floor

-  Ticket Office
-  Rest area
-  Gift shop
-  Disabled toilets
-  Cloakroom
-  Lift
-  Toilets

 The Museum recommends

The Museum recommends

- 1 The panels depicting the Conquest of Mexico

1698 using the enconchado technique in the viceroyalty of Nueva España.

- 2 A waterproof coat made by the Inuit in the 18th century from seal or walrus intestines for protection from the icy waters of the Arctic.

- 3 The series of paintings depicting castes or mixed races in the new American society since 1492.

in the new American society since 1492.

- 4 A Mayan urn, which shows the deceased king becoming Kinich Ahau, solar god of the night and the underworld.

- 5 The shirt adorned with porcupine quills, worn by the chief of a tribe that lived on the Great Plains.

- 6 The Helmet identifying its owner, a member of the Tlingit tribe living on the Northwest coast of North America, as a member of the wolf clan.

- 7 The painting of the port of Sevilla. This port was the communication center of the known world at the end of the 16th century.

- 8 The Quimbaya chief, part of the most important indigenous treasure that has come to our days.

- 9 The gold and silver monstrance produced in Cuzco, a symbol of Catholic liturgy and evangelism.

- 10 The Tro-Cortesian or Madrid Codex. It is one of only 4 pre-Hispanic Mayan codices preserved in the world.

More Museum

What's on today

Find out about our current activities at the ticket office, at www.mecd.gob.es/museodeamerica or on social networks.

Collaborate with the Museum

Visit the adamaamerica.com website and discover the advantages of becoming a Friend of the Museum.

Places to rest

In the Reading Cloister, a place for reading, relaxing and bookcrossing.

Come back

Admission is free on Sundays.

Tuesday to Saturday: from 9.30 a.m. to 3.00 p.m.
Sundays and public holidays: from 10.00 a.m. to 3.00 p.m.

Remember that we close on Mondays throughout the year, 1 January, 1 May, 24, 25 and 31 December and on two local holidays.

Library (by prior arrangement): Tuesday to Friday from 9.00 a.m. to 2.00 p.m.

Come again another day

Because there's still a lot to learn about the Americas for you to enjoy.

Services

- Free parking at weekends
- Wheelchairs
- Audio guide
- Wi-fi in the cloisters
- Hearing loop

Take the opportunity to visit other museums of the Moncloa area:

Museo del Traje. CIPE
Avda. de Juan de Herrera, 2

Museo Cerralbo
C/ Ventura Rodríguez, 17